Disneyland, Walt Disney's Magic Kingdom, is composed of five main areas or "lands."

Main Street, a re-creation of a typical American town of 1900.

Tomorrowland, a thrilling preview of our life in the future.

Fantasyland, a world of imagination come to life.

Frontierland, a cross-section of America's colorful and historic past.

Adventureland, the romance and adventure of far-away places.

All of these are Disneyland and to really experience the "happiest place on earth," you'll want to visit all of these five "lands." During your tour of Disneyland, be sure to visit the many informative and entertaining exhibits and shows sponsored by nationally known concerns. There is no admission charge.

MAIN STREET

- Wurlitzer—Old-fashioned and modern pianos and organs.
- Upjohn Pharmacy—A detailed, accurate re-creation of a 1900 "drug store."
- Swift's Market House—The old-fashioned General Store.
- Eastman Kodak—Display of early photographic equipment.
- North America Companies — Complete Tourist Information Center.
- Yale & Towne — A complete display of the locksmith's art.

TOMORROWLAND

- Monsanto House of Chemistry—Exciting display of chemistry's contribution to tomorrow's living.
- Kaiser Aluminum—Today's and Tomorrow's uses of this vital metal, dramatically presented.
- American Dairy Association—Futuristic techniques in production and distribution of dairy products.
- Crane Company—Bathroom of the Future.
- American Motors Circarama — Exciting motion pictures that actually surround you.
- Richfield Diorama—"The Story of Oil" in Technicolor.
- Dutch Boy—Have fun with color.

DISNEYLAND
TO ALL WHO COME TO THIS HAPPY
PLACE.

Welcome

Disneyland is your land. Here age relives fond memories of the past . . . and here youth may savor the challenge and promise of the future.

Disneyland is dedicated to the ideals, the dreams, and the hard facts that have created America . . . with the hope that it will be a source of joy and inspiration to all the world.
